A Southern Girl's Summer Veggie Boxes

From Daddy-Daughter Farm

A Southern Girl's Veggie Boxes is a CSA membership program for families and individuals, giving them the opportunity to receive fresh weekly vegetables, in a convenient fashion, that complements busy schedules. Boxes will be available for local pick-up or right here on Daddy-Daughter Farm. Below you will find details related to how the program works.

Our boxes are locally grown in Davidson county and the vegetables included are hand picked from our farm, hand packaged in your box, and delivered into your hands, all in the same week.

Time Period for the Program: Five (5) weeks - Summer; Estimated to begin the last week in June.

What is Included: Each veggie box will consist of seasonal vegetables, such as: carrots, cabbage, lettuce, beets, squash, cucumbers, tomatoes, winter squashes, beans, corn, etc. Vegetable selection will vary weekly, depending on harvest.

- For example a summer box might include: cabbage, squash, zucchini, cucumbers, tomatoes, and beans.

Membership for the Program: There will be a non-refundable membership fee of $60.00 that is due to the farm by May 15, 2026.

Buy-in Credit for the Program: In order to secure your weekly veggie box, there will be a $35.00 initial buy-in credit, due at time of membership. This fee will be divided into the five (5) weeks of the program, giving you a $7.00 credit, weekly toward your box cost. If you choose not to pick-up one of your weekly boxes, the credit set aside for that week will be non-refundable.

How Much Do I Pay at Time of Weekly Pick-up: $10.00
